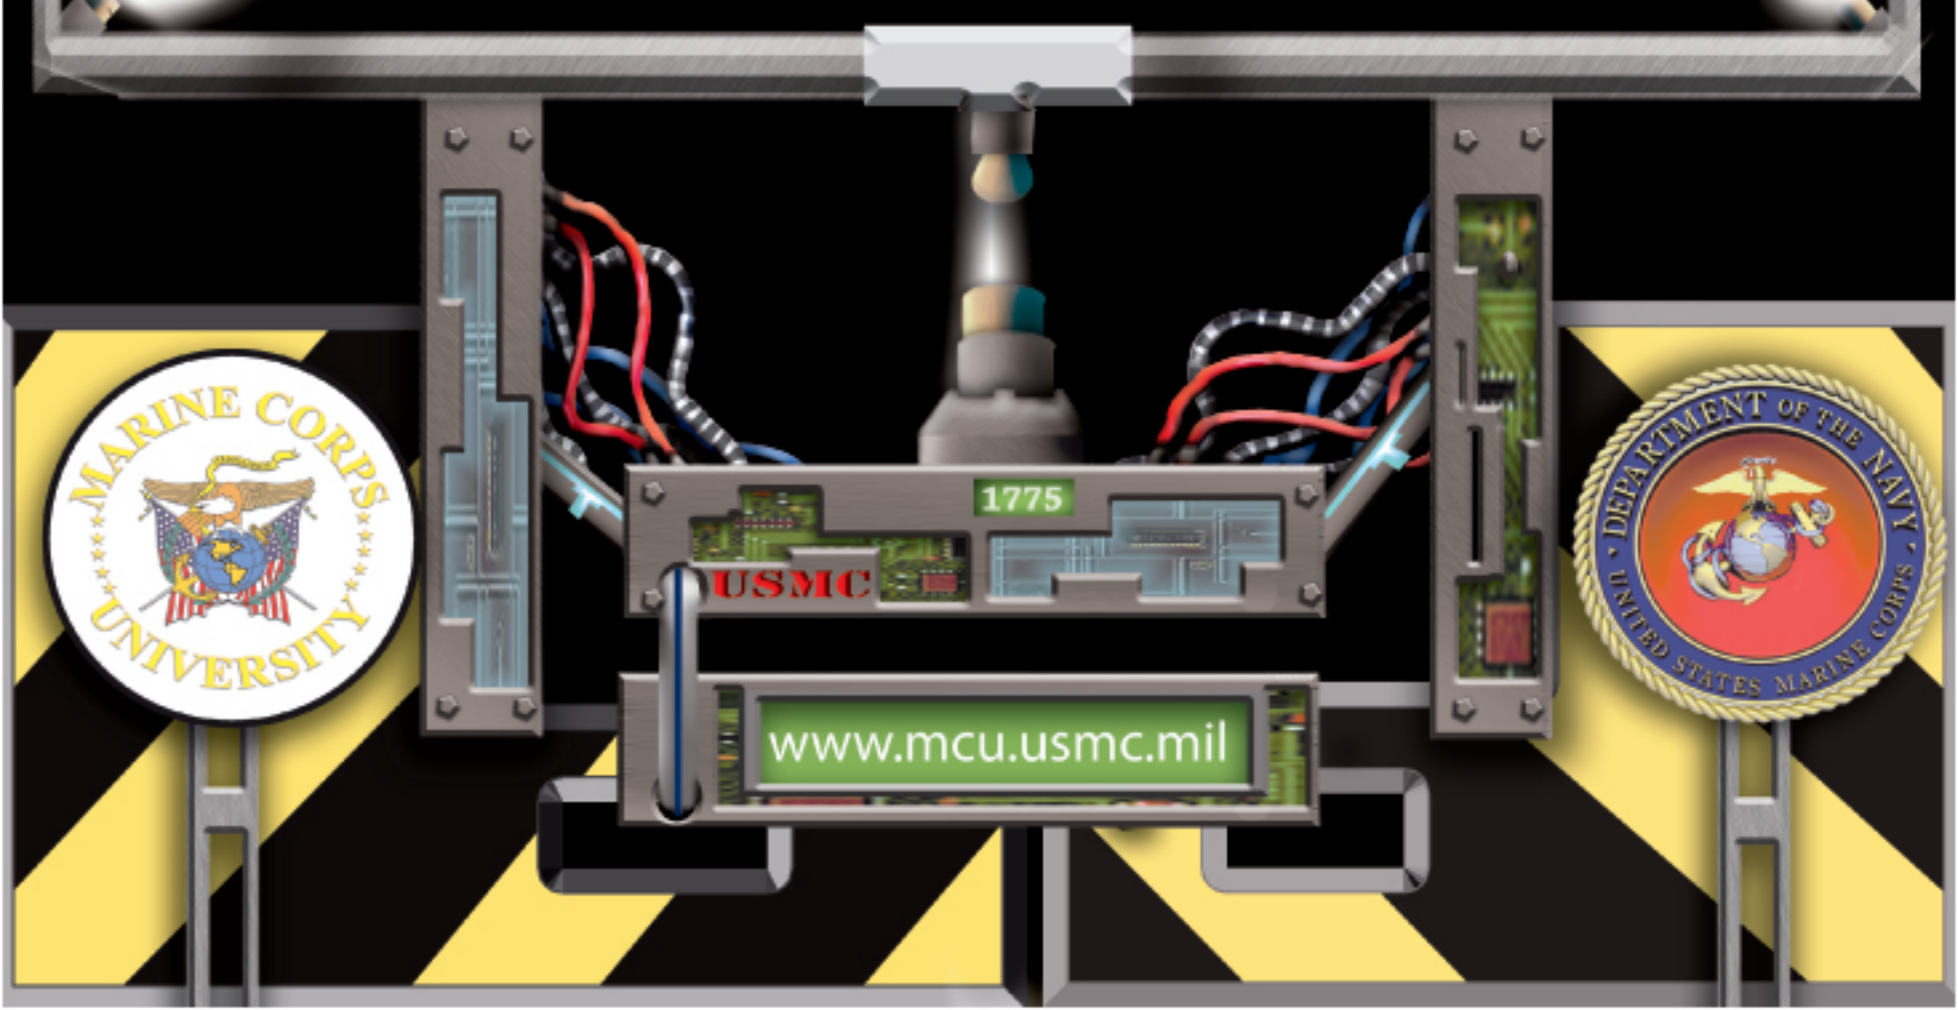
The Marine Corps Professional Reading Program

"All Marines must develop a disciplined approach to studying, thinking, and discussing our profession ... The selected books will facilitate a common understanding, stimulate intellectual curiosity, and ... bolster professional education within our ranks ... to make the critical decisions upon which future victories will rest."

General M. W. Hagee


33rd Commandant of the Marine Corps