

School of MAGTF Logistics

Mission Statement

The School of MAGTF Logistics (SOML) develops, coordinates, integrates, and provides logistics education programs for officer, enlisted, and civilian logisticians in order to prepare them to meet the dynamic logistics challenges of present and future operational environments.

	2001	2002	2003	2004	2005
Total Students	227	237	291	513	594*
Male/ Female	203/24	214/23	264/27	487/26	544/50*
Courses
Advanced Logistics Operations Course (ALOC)	107	116	113	147	144*
Tactical Logistics Operations Course (TLOC)	120	121	178	204	288*
Marine Corps Logistics Education Program (MCLEP)				112	112*
Logistics Support of Joint Operations				40	40*
Logistics and Executive Course (LOGTECH)				10	10*

* Estimated total number of students.

SOML Faculty

LtCol Stephen E. Reynolds, USMC, Director, SOML (703) 784-5861

Maj Mark M. Walter, USMC, Deputy Director, ALOC (703) 784-6922

Maj Ron Reese, USMC, Deputy Director, TLOC (703) 784-6839